

STOCKPERSON / LIVESTOCK HANDLER

We are currently seeking experienced & competent Livestock Handlers for our modern export Beef Abattoirs.

ABOUT YOU

You should possess the ability to produce quality standards of workmanship that is required for an export red meat plant.

Able to work effectively autonomously and require minimum supervision.

Ability to work rotating shifts early morning and night with some weekend and overtime as required

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES INCLUDE

Working a 38.00-hour week

Moving livestock on foot from holding pens to the plant slaughter floor

Identifying and separating sick livestock

Handling livestock in accordance with company Animal Welfare Policies

Humanly euthanise sick and injured livestock

Able to work rotating day & night roster

Ideally, candidates with the following attributes are encouraged to apply:

An interest in livestock handling and processing

Good livestock handling skills (Experience is a requirement)

A current firearm's licence or ability to obtain one

Be physically capable

Be able to work unsupervised

Work as part of a team in a Livestock yard environment

Be reliable and keen to learn

Be able to communicate with livestock managers and supervisor

Have own reliable transport

If you wish to apply, please email hr@oakeybeef.com.au or call 07 4692 0084