

Nowendoc Run

The Manager, Nowendoc Run
6138 Brackendale Road
NOWENDOC NSW 2354

OVERVIEW OF THE ROLE:

Due to a recent expansion, we are seeking either an experienced Stationhand or a genuinely passionate individual who wants to step into a well-supported role, joining our existing team of four.

- Beef cattle operation – Angus breeding cows and trade steers.
- Ideally located in the beautiful Eastern New England Region.
- Room for further career progression with supported training, annual review systems and bonus programs established.
- Work available for partners, couples encouraged to apply
- On farm accommodation provided. Salary and package negotiable dependant on experience

POSITION DESCRIPTION: Station Hand / Stockman – Nowendoc Run

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES:

Livestock:

- working with cattle ensuring the highest welfare standards are upheld at all times. •

Livestock are handled using Low Stress Stock Handling techniques.

- Own working dogs are essential

Pastures:

- Monitor pastures on a regular basis
- Planting Pastures
- Boom spraying with GPS guidance

Communication:

- Regular communication with the Assistant Manager/ Manager.

Record Keeping:

- Livestock movements
- Agiwebb livestock recording

SKILLS AND ATTRIBUTES REQUIRED TO PERFORM THIS ROLE:

Skills and knowledge:

- Knowledge and understanding of pasture and livestock operations

Personal attributes:

- Excellent communication skills.
- The ability to think strategically and adapt as circumstances change.
- Ability to work within a team as well as an individual depending on the task at hand.
- Ability to troubleshoot and solve problems.
- Be honest, discrete, and reliable.

Apply in writing with names and contact details of two referees to:

Email: positions@nowendoc.run

Or

The Manager, Nowendoc Run
6138 Brackendale Road
NOWENDOC NSW 2354