

Position Description

Credit Analyst

Employment Term	Full time
Location	Flexible
Reports to	Credit Director

Are you passionate about agriculture and ready to make an impact in Australia's livestock industry? Agrifunder is seeking a dynamic, analytical, and growth-oriented individual to join our team as an Analyst, supporting our Credit and Sales channels while developing into a future client management role.

At Agrifunder, we empower Australian livestock producers by providing innovative working capital solutions. Our success lies in our deep industry expertise, cutting-edge technology, and a team committed to driving our clients' success. With exciting growth opportunities ahead, now is the perfect time to join our journey.

Why Join Agrifunder?

We pride ourselves on maintaining the highest levels of service, achieved through:

- Technology
- Teamwork
- Responsiveness
- Collective Values

Our team thrives on energy, professionalism, creativity, and collaboration. As part of Agrifunder, you'll work in an environment that values innovation, engagement, and solution-driven approaches.

The Role: Analyst

As an Analyst, you will support both Credit and Sales functions within Agrifunder, reporting directly to the Credit Director for personal development and career progression. You will also work closely with the Sales Director, who will oversee all credit applications.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conduct in-depth analyses of new business applications and annual reviews, assessing financial and operational performance to identify risks and creditworthiness.
- Support the Credit Director in evaluating and assessing credit applications to ensure sound decision-making.
- Prepare comprehensive credit reports and undertake other necessary inquiries to support credit recommendations.
- Draft facility and transaction documentation for new business opportunities.
- Manage client accounts and support the day-to-day operations of Agrifunder.
- Ensure compliance with internal policies and regulatory requirements, while maintaining accurate reporting and record-keeping.

- Provide exceptional service to clients and liaise with their staff and advisors, supporting the Sales team in delivering value.
- Identify and implement opportunities for process improvement across the business.
- Collaborate with marketing, sales, and stakeholder engagement initiatives.

What We're Looking For

We're looking for someone who brings:

- A strong passion for agriculture.
- Excellent analytical and problem-solving skills.
- A proactive, solutions-driven mindset.
- The ability to work collaboratively and engage effectively with clients and stakeholders.
- Creativity and an innovative approach to tackling challenges.

What's in it for You?

- A supportive, flexible work environment with remote or regional options.
- Opportunities for professional growth and development into client management roles.
- Be part of a team that's shaping the future of Australian agriculture.

Ready to Apply?
